

“Who you are IN Christ”

Hello, This is a short Audio of Who you are IN Christ. I am Christine Lennard with Alchemy Mind “Teaching how to use the mind Christ Gave you to transform the ordinary into the extraordinary.” Listen to this tool at least once everyday; even listen to it throughout your day as you would the radio or even let it play in the background while you are sleeping. It is our intention that it will transform YOUR image of yourself into the image GOD wants you to have of yourself. This is the beginning of allowing God’s full abundance into your life.

I invite you to really focus on and listen to the following statements that are based on scripture. Focus on the words as well as the spaces in between the words like you would if you were listening to music. You really are you know. These words are the music of your sole. It would be most helpful in transforming your mind if you repeat the statement after me.
